Experiencing Domestic Abuse

If you are in immediate danger

Call the police on 999

If you cannot speak, press 55 when prompted and listen for instructions. You'll be able to conduct your call in silence.

There are a number of agencies set up to help victims of domestic abuse, many detailed below. Some of these are specifically tailored to certain groups of people either by age, gender or ethnicity. There are also agencies who support the perpetrators to change.

Domestic Abuse One Stop Shop

Here you will find a multi agency approach to seek advice regarding any aspect of our situation. The type of agencies and advice are:-

- Independent Domestic Abuse Advisors (IDVAs)
- Legal
- Housing
- Police
- Benefits
- Refuge

This is run by Home Start and takes place every Thursday 12.30-2.30pm at Folkestone Early Years Centre, Dover Road, Folkestone, CT20 1QF (the round building)
